CARD of THANKS

I wish to express my sincere appreciation to my friends and relatives for their many act s of kindnesses shown me during my recent stay in the hospital and since my return home. Also for the cards, visits, and gifts. Your kindness will always be remembered. Mrs. Isabelle Grady. 9/9/1t

I deeply appreciate the kind consideration shown me during the years I have been associated with the Nursing Home at Spout Spring. My employees, our local doctors and their office personnel, our pharmacists and drug store employees, the patients and their families, and my fellow workers have helped me in so many ways.
Gratefully,
Rebecca B. Rosser.

'Bark' Fire On Labor Day

Firemen of Appomattox spent their Labor Day holiday - at least a great part of-it - fighting a five-acre fire in loose bark from a pulp mill, bark which had been dumped near the Spring Mills community, Road 604, southwest Appomattox county. The call came about 10:15 a.m. and the county truck did not return to the town of Appomattox until 1:30 p.m. The tanker did not return until 5:15.

Concord firemen plus others from Rustburg helped fight the smoldering blaze as well as Appomattox' equipment. Frank Moore's bulldozers were used, also, according to a report from C. R. Wooldridge, fire chief.

34th Annual SEC Will Meet Sept. 11th

Two widely known and respected leaders in the field of agriculture and power supply will be guest speakers at the 34th annual meeting of the membership of the Southside Electric Cooperative to be held at the Crewe headquarters on Saturday, September 11th.

The tone of the meeting will be set by Charles B. Shuman, past president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, who will talk on "Agriculture, Industry and Government." His address will be the first feature of the program and will speak shortly after 1 p.m.

T. Justin Moore, Jr., president of the Virginia Electric and Power Company, will be the highlight of the business meeting period when he speaks on "Power for the People". He will speak at 2:15 p.m.

The annual meeting gets under way at 10 a.m. with registration at the Cooperative's pavilion just west of the Crewe SEC headquarters on Rt #460.

The meeting is open to the public with plenty of parking space for both members and guests.

Congressman Watkins M. Abbitt, of Appomattox, who never misses an SEC meeting, will be on the program with a welcome address.

The Arthur Smith show, popular television religious and folk music singing musicians will entertain at the meeting. Jody Rainwater and his Southside Virginians, a local music group, will be featured from 10 a.m. until noon.

R. H. Davis, president of the Nottoway Farm Bureau, will introduce Robert B. Delano, the president of the Virginia Farm Bureau Federation, who will introduce Mr. Shuman. C. S. Hooper Jr., General Manager of the Cooperative, will introduce Mr. Moore.

At the business meeting there will be reports from the President, the Secretary, the Treasurer, and the General Manager; and the membership will elect three Directors to the Board.
